Afternoon Seminar

LOOKING FOR NEW OPPORTUNITIES TO DELIVER VALUE

Tuesday, March 2, 2010
2:00 p.m.-5:00 p.m.

About Our Speaker Art Noe

After a stint in the US Army as a Maintenance Office in the 1990/1991 Gulf War Art Joined Quad/Graphics in 1991 as a Quad/Graphics Corporate Trainee. He joined the Hartford Customer Service team in 1993 and was promoted to management in 1996. Art served as the Quad/Graphics Hartford plant Lead CSR and managed the bulk of the weekly magazines in Hartford until his promotion to Plant Manager of the Pewaukee plant in 2001.

In the spring of 2002 Art took on the duties as Director of Corporate Purchasing. Art currently manages a wide range of spend including Supplies, Repairs, Equipment, Production Services and SG&A. He has direct line of supervision for subsidiary Quad/Tech and dotted line responsibilities for the Poland subsidiary Quad/Winkowski.

Art is in his fourth year as a member of the ISM-Milwaukee Board of Directors currently responsible for Membership and Retention.

A graduate of Beaver Dam High School he earned a bachelor's degree in Industrial Technology from the University of Wisconsin - Platteville. Art lives in Erin, Wis., with his wife, Maureen and their twin daughters Grace and Ginny.

Responsibilities:

Art's main responsibility is to work with all business units to assert the leverage of Quad/Graphics purchase power to reduce the total cost of operation. This includes management of all systems related to the Quad/Graphics Supply Chain Management systems as well as the Request for Proposal (RFP) & contracting process.
